

Henry Wilson A-joint Mini Bench

CULTDESIGN.COM.AU

Description

A-joint mini bench is an intuitive and utilitarian joinery system. Constructed to connect with standardised timbers, A-joint mini allows the user to create structures that are strong and adaptable. Sand-cast in re-claimed metals and almost indestructible, A-joint can be used for benches, trestle tables, market stalls and shop fit-outs. A-joint unites simple function with limitless form. Use it to make anything you like.
