PLEASE WAIT

We look for the right angle, take a perspective, engage in reflection. It's the door to another world.

MIMESIS is an ancient Greek term that touches on the aesthetics of imitation and mimicry, and the tension between appearance and reality.

MIMESIS is also said to be the "soul" of an artwork.

With its strong, clear lines the MIMESIS mirror frames an assymetrical image of it's surroundings, and become a reflected decoration on your wall.

Inspired by the modern urban environment, the Copenhagen-based 'ALL THE WAY TO PARIS' studio has established itself at the place where art direction, graphic design and product design development align. Since 2005, Tanja Vibe and Petra Olsson Gendt have been generating fresh design and product ideas that share a clear, intelligent and uncluttered visual identity.
