Angelo Mangiarotti

Italian architect, sculptor and designer Angelo Mangiarotti (1921 - 2012) is quoted to have said, "Happiness comes from honesty". A quote that hints to his overall design approach rooted in the firm belief that architecture was a practical discipline and that industrial design was an expression of fine craftsmanship. He wanted each individual material to be respected and to be used in an appropriate and honest way. Beyond his many architectural feats, Mangiarotti's body of work boasts a wide array of creative projects from sculpture, to products and lighting.

Designed in 1985 by Angelo Mangiarotti, a celebrated Italian architect, sculptor, and designer, the Accelsa lamp embodies a blend of timeless elegance and a contemporary appeal.

Crafted from delicate, hand-made Venetian frosted white glass, the design emits a gentle, diffused light, creating an ambient atmosphere that adds tranquility and charm to any space.
